

Tutor Your Child Ltd - School Consultancy Tutoring Programme Safeguarding Statement

February 2024

Our School Consultancy Tutoring Programme (part of Tutor Your Child Ltd) involves supporting staff to use our programme to work with children and young people in schools. When working in schools, we will abide by the safeguarding procedures of the organisation.

The Purpose and Scope of this Policy Statement

The purpose of this policy statement is:

- to protect children and young people who receive School Consultancy Tutoring Programme's services from harm, this includes the children of adults who use our services
- to provide staff and volunteers, as well as children and young people and their families, with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection. This policy applies to anyone working on behalf of the School Consultancy Tutoring Programme.

Legal Framework

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect children in England. A summary of the key legislation and guidance is available from www.nspcc.org.uk/childprotection

Supporting Documents

This policy statement should be read alongside our other documents, agreements and statements www.schoolconsultancyprogramme.co.uk

We believe that:

Children and young people should never experience abuse of any kind. We have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children and young people, to keep them safe and to practise in a way that protects them.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of children is paramount in all the work we do and in all the decisions we take
- we must work in partnership with schools in, and the work they do with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare

The School Consultancy Tutoring Programme is part of Tutor Your Child Ltd. Registration Number:13378546. Registered Office: 20 Westlands Way, Oxted, Surrey RH8 0ND

- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- extra safeguards may be needed to keep children, who are additionally vulnerable, safe from abuse

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection and safeguarding best practice through our policies, procedures and code of conduct for staff and volunteers
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support, training and quality assurance measures so that all staff and volunteers know about, and follow, our policies, procedures and behaviour codes confidently and competently
- recruiting and selecting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- recording and storing and using information professionally and securely, in line with data protection legislation and guidance
- using the safeguarding and child protection procedures of the schools we work in to share concerns and relevant information
- using our procedures to manage any allegations against staff and volunteers appropriately
- creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise
- ensuring that we have effective complaints and whistleblowing measures in place
- building a safeguarding culture where staff and volunteers are comfortable about sharing concerns
